SATURDAY, AUGUST 30. BRIEF MENTION.

COURT DECISIONS .- Two decisions of the Supreme Court will be found in this issue-one on the fourth page, and one in the Supplement. In Vino Veritas, is an old saying, and those wishing to test its truth are referred to the advertisement of Madeira Wines in another column. The regular monthly meeting of the Mission Children's Society will be held this Saturday evening at the house of W. W. Hall, Esq., Nuuanu and residence of T. J. Mossman, advertised to take place at Wailuku, Maui, on the 27th inst., has been postponed until Sept. 24th. Masonic .- Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M., will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, Sept. 1, in the new hall, corner of Queen and Fort streets, at 7:80 p. m. Madame Camilla Urso, the celebrated violinist, will leave San Francisco for Australia thrifty. We have reason to doubt the tales that by the steamer of Sept. 1st. Should time permit, are told of the $7000 and $4000 " solid cash "

We learn that Mr. Robert Stanley Renton, (a nephew of Mr. Renton, of Kohala, Hawaii) who is President of the Hawthorne Literary Union, of Brooklyn, N. RATS .- At nearly the "witching hour" last Thursday night, the kitchen of the flotel was the scene of action for the destruction of numbers of the rodents whose presence at that hostelry have become somewhat obnoxious. ADMITTED TO THE BAR. - We are pleased note that Mr. James M. Monsarrat has recently been admitted as an Attorney and Counsellor at law in the Courts of this Kingdom, Mr Monsarrat is native and to the manner born, which naturally gives him a claim upon our good will; his family are part and parcel of us Hawaiians, and that is another point in his favor. A RUNAWAY .- The restive war horse at present confined to the shafts of the smaller street sprinkler became imbued with some of his old time spirit on the afternoon of last Thursday, and under the influence thereof, started off along Merchant street, at a rate of speed that threatened to jolt the machine to pieces. The driver made a futile attemp to got within the portals of the barrel, but the bole was not large enough to admit his entrance, and before he could form another plan to escape, the Kaiwi's land. We are reminded by a correspondent of the fact that a little over two years ago he and we stood on a rising ground overlooking those commons, when we made the remark, " It will not be more than two or three years hence when we shall see all these rich lands, now so dry, covered with crops of cane." Our prediction will be verified within the coming six months. CROQUET .- This game seems to have taken a strong hold of a certain portion of the native population, for the air has resounded with the stroke of the mallet from early morn till late (midnight) during the last few moonlight evenings. The ground selected is close by the banks

all natives, who play this fascinating (?) game to carry on their conversations in English or else foreign sightseers will lose lots of fun. STATUE OF KAHEHAMEHA I .- It will be remembered that the last Legislature appropriated the sum of $10,000 for the purpose of procuring a statue of Kamehameha the Conquerer, to be placed in some prominent situation in this city. The Committee to whom was delegated the duty consists of the Hon, W. M. Gibson and their Excellencies the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Finance. We learn that plans have been submitted and adopted by the committee, which will be sent forward to the artist, Mr. T. R. Gould. of Boston, by the mail steamer on Monday. The statue will be of bronze, representing the 19 Kung Hing Lung & Co Hotel st Honolulu

So far as we can judge the work will be an honor to the country and an object of just pride to Hawaiians-as well as to the gentleman who is the author of the suggestion, the Hon. Mr. Gibson.

THE THEATRE.-During the week just passed the community at large, both native and foreign, have been very generous with the guid will close a six weeks season. The plays presented during the past week were Cinderella on Monday, Othello on Wednesday, a miscellan-Miss Eliza Long's benefit, tendered her by her numerous admirers as a token of their esteem, and which included scenes from that these two artistes have contributed greatly to the success of the plays presented; and on this occasion the recitation of Sheridan's Ride, which the writer has often heard rendered before by Miss H. when she was the "daughter" of the Hayes Invincibles, took the audience by storm, and the applause and tenders of floral tributes made by them to this lady evinced their apprecia-tion of her merits. Mr. Bock's Seven Ages from As You Like It, was a finished and masterly rendition and received the applause it merited.

This evening the burlesque of Cinderella will be repeated, and Mr. Wells as the "prince of pretty fellows" may cause a palpitation in the hearts of some of the fair sex; but it is doubtful should make a common cause against a common enemy. Not against individual Chinamen; they are not to be blamed for coming; but against the if the witticisms of Clorinda will not have the SPECIAL NOTICES.

In dropping the curtain upon the departing players, their forms will not be entirely lost to view, for the memory of the pleasant evenings passed in their company will live within us when they are far from these Island shores. Wishing them handy machine for setting up and mending fence wire, will find just the thing at Dillingham & Co.'s store, Fort ring down and amnes execut. effect to change their thoughts from grave to gay.

RAINFALL FOR AUGUST .- There have been an unusual number of showers during the past month, and the rain guage at Dr. McKibbin's, in this city, registered 1.73, up to the 28th inst. At Waikiki, Capt. D. Smith reports a little over two inches.

ARRIVAL OF IMMIGRANTS .- The British ship

Ravenscrag, which we announced on the 9th inst. as daily expected, arrived on Saturday the 23d, 154 days from Liverpool, including a stay of twenty days at Madeira. From that Island she brings a total of 423 souls—135 men, 110 women and 178 children. These immigrants are all healthy, hearty looking people, and will prove a valuable acquisition to our population—a real hooulu lahui—for they have come to stay. During the passage three children died and five were born. We understand that about all the male immigrants have been engaged as laborers on plantations or otherwise. The Board of Immigration, of which the Minister of the Interior is POSTPONED .- The auction sale of the stock, store President, has had its time and attention quite fully occupied during the past week in providing for the wants of these people and in arranging for their future settlement. It will be noticed that considerably more than the stipulated pro-portion of women and children (40 per cent.) compose this lot of immigrants. This may be somewhat embarrassing in the outset, but will in the end we are persuaded prove advantageous to

To the Editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertuer: SIR :- Things about Wailuku are the same as they have been for years past, unless we may call it an improvement to the place to boast of having the measles, and more pills and apothecaries than formerly. Physicians here are as thick as huckleberries. The Female Seminary, in Makawao, is turned into a hospital at present, on account of Measles, but there have as yet been no deaths, owing no doubt to the good care taken of the children by their kind teach-

The only matter that has excited the public pulse here since the death-of the chinaman " Kela," was the passing of two heavily loaded teams over a little native girl, and she escaped quite uninjured ! The only way the almost miraculous escape can be accounted for, is the fact that the child was under the bridge bathing while the teams went over it-the rail road, which is being constructed from Kahului to this place. It looks, I was going to say, "like a thing of life" but I forbear when I remember seeing that quotation used a few thousand times lately in relation to Steamboats in Honolulu harbor. But I will use a more classical expression, and say it looks "Nifty" to see the iron horse running over the track, carrying material to the workmen, and also carrying lots af lany Kanakas back and forth, perhaps as much for exercise as for fun and the novelty of the thing. Natives in these parts become demoralized in about exact proportion as they decrease in population, and the demand for their services increases. Chinamen are superior in all kinds of labor they know how to perform. They are more industrious, and if kept under proper discipline are far more peacable and tractable. They are gentle, they are kind, and to exhibit at ill furthur characteristics of that model of fidelity, and dog Tract. of that model of fidelity—old dog Tray—their tails stick out behind.

The Hawaiian Commercial Company's great irrigating canal is nearly completed, and when done-reservoirs, etc., is intended to carry water enough to irrigate four thousand acres of land. They will now begin plowing, ferroing and planting; and with a proper person as manager, one who is practically acquainted with farming, the soil on the commons, the seasons, winds, and a thousand other things that would take a stranger years to learn, it should be and easily could be made the model plantation of the Sandwich Islands, if not of gration. The strongest argument advanced by those who encourage Chinese Immigration, is "We must have labor or we cannot develop our wealth." What do they mean by development? If the only object to be attained is the speedy cultivation of large tracts of sugar lands, to make the productions and exports as large as possible within a given time, to get all the sugar out of the ground and out of the country with the greatest possible speed and the least possible expense and the proceeds thereof centralized and controlled by a few foreign or resident capitalists or incorporations—if that is what they mean by the development of "our wealth," then certainly it is necessary to import large droves of ignorant, immoral, degraded, but industrious and cheap human cattle to do the work; but I claim there are other and more important modes of development. If the Islands are rich in undeveloped wealth whorefore the necessity of such undue haste in production and disposition? In that wealth lies ample security upon which to rest a strong local independence and all that is necessary of foreign credit; why not then develop the resources ourselves, slowly and healthfully, with home enterprise and home industry, inviting to our assistence a class of labor and capital that can also assist in the promotion and perpetuity of enlightened society and government, and that will be permanent among us. There is capital enough here if properly directed and assisted by proper enterprise to carry on all necessary industries on a sufficiently enlarged basis for the general welfare, but if more must be had let it be of a kind that will benefit us permanently, and let the laborers be of a class that will make good citizens consumers. ceeds thereof centralized and controlled by a irrigation scheme of Mr. Speckles on East Maui, of a slow winding stream and in the classic permanently, and let the laborers be of a class that will make good citizens, consumers as well as producers, whose offspring will grow up healthful region of Ford's Avenue. The inquisitive foreigner attracted by the noise and who mayhap has and intelligent supporters of good government and law. Our resources developed under such auspices, would give us as a commonwealth lasting played the game in days of pore, cannot appreciate the Hawaiian manner, as the quarreling although plenty of it, as is usual in croquet, is in independence. Why then allow a selfish few who advocate a mistaken policy to crowd us into a mushroom growth, ruining us with Chinese cheap labor, and morally, financially and socially stultia language which he nix for stay, and the classical quotations and bon mots made use of are dead to him. There should be a rule compelling lying us? But here, the chief danger of unrestricted Chinese immigration does not lie in labor competition, for the Chinaman does not stop a mere plantation machine, assisting in the "development of wealth," but with his natural acquisitiveness, thrift and frugality of habits, (creditable attributes) he gradually encroaches upon all branches of industry and trade, forcing upon the more liberal white citizen an unbealthy competition, and even-tually driving him from the field. That the Chinese are industrious and frugal, no one can deny, and therein lies a strong argument against them, for such attributes make them more dangerous as competitors, and as they do not have the other necessary traits which make the good citizen, such as moral character, liberality, charity, pride of country, etc., their power to injure a cor country, etc., their power to injure a community is enhanced by their apparent virtues. The Chinaman' comes to our shores with no thought of conforming to our customs or laws, except under compulsion,—he does not affiliate in any manner with the white residents nor has he any sympathy with our form of government, or any interest in him; he does not intend to became a permanent resident; his law is to produce and acquire much and consume little; he is devoted to himself and to his race in antagonism to the rules which gov-ern enlightened society; and the result of his encouragement here is to discourage and drive away the intelligent white artisan or laborer who has a family to support and educate. For competition with him is hopeless; he lives for six cents a day! pro quo necessary to obtain an entrance and He drives the shoemaker, the tailor, the shirtview the last and really the best efforts of the maker, remorselessly before him and takes bread California Theatre Company, who with to night from their children's mouths. Soon the retail dealer of dry goods, groceries, hardware, &c., will bave to "follow suit" and seek a more congental clime; and after them the importers and wholeeous programme on Thursday, the occasion of salers. Then perhaps those business men, who are now so naturally or willfully obtuse, when it is too late to remedy the evil, will see their mistake, It will be seen from the above showing that the Chinese laborer, who (except in rare cases) comes Macbeth, Romeo and Juliet, and recitations by Miss Nellie Holbrook and Mr. Fred Bock.

En passant, it is but simple justice to mention to the interests of the commonwealth, but not enough to make an enlightened and desirable citizen. Only the capitalist who uses him while in his crude state of semi-slavery is temporarily benefited by his cheap labor, while the community as a whole are seriously injured.

But we must have labor, or capital will not come here and develop our wealth. No man who has a home here or expects to-have No man who has a home here or expects to have one, or who feels any interest in the welfare of the Kingdom, should be guilty of apathy or ladifference on this subject. All should work together to avert an impending evil. The moralist should lift up his voice against the influx of this immoral, polygamous, opium eating scourge. The laborer, the mechanic, the merchant, white and native, should make a common cause against a common
